

The Perry Marshall Marketing System

©2002 Perry S. Marshall & Associates

All Rights Reserved

Table of Contents

Book 1

1. Marketing shortcuts for the sales guy who doesn't have time to start a marketing department
 - Customer re-activation letter
 - How to bypass the bureaucracy of big-company marketing departments
2. Your "Magnetic Marketing Message:" The Unique Selling Proposition
 - Differentiating yourself with "Widgets"
 - Marketing and Improvisation
 - Those "Lousy" Bose Speakers
 - Run Baby Run: A lesson from the religious end of the spectrum
 - Finding a secondary market
3. Balancing media vs. in-person selling
 - Exhibits
4. Missionary work on the cheap
 - Educating customers on the cheap
 - How to make competitors do your missionary work for you
 - How a salesman becomes a celebrated industry expert
 - Positioning Power
 - My Pink Cadillac Theory of killer sales people
 - Improvisation vs. planning
 - The ten sins of sales people
 - The study of harsh reality
5. How to squeeze the most marketing power from your website
 - Exhibits
 - Autoresponders
6. The amazing power of a simple press release
 - 39 Thought Starters
 - "Where do I get a list of magazine editors"
 - Good press releases
 - Gallery of bad press releases
 - Exhibits
7. De-construction of two successful trade journal articles
 - Writers guidelines
8. Perry S. Marshall on the Cluetrain Manifesto
 - "Epiphany in Communist China"
 - East Meets West: What the East and West buy from each other

The Perry Marshall Marketing System

©2002 Perry S. Marshall & Associates

All Rights Reserved

Table of Contents

Book 2

1. Scientific Advertising by Claude Hopkins
 - Why Ad Agencies Don't Advertise
 - How to use testing for maximum profit
2. The little known secret of the direct marketing masters – the Multi-Step Follow Up Sequence
3. Examples of good advertising
 - Gallery of Bad Advertising
4. Why companies don't sell as much as they should
 - How ordinary people like you can write great advertising copy
5. The Greatest Marketing Secrets of the Ages by Yanik Silver
 - Exhibits
6. Enthusiasts write the best ads
 - A different kind of copywriting example
 - The little-known secrets of writing great advertisements
 - "No, David!"
 - Copywriting: Principle vs. Technique
 - Jabberwocky
7. "This all sounds really great, but I'm not a writer!"
 - Fiction: the ultimate place to learn the art of conversation
8. The mechanics of Direct Mail
 - Exhibits
9. Introduction to Broadcast Faxing
10. How to increase the response to your ads with free recorded messages